

for the trial court to resolve the other issues. In this case, however, there will be no appeal. The court will re-sentence the defendant, as the defendant asks, and the government agrees should happen. Any appeal would concern the re-sentencing, not the sentencing which is the subject of this petition. Thus, deciding the other issues is unnecessary. The law cited by the government is inapplicable to the circumstances of this case.¹

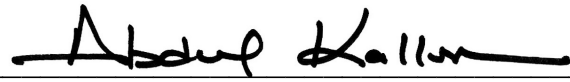

The court has considered the entire file in this action, together with the report and recommendation and the government's response to the report and recommendation, and has reached an independent conclusion that the report and recommendation is due to be adopted and approved. Accordingly, the court hereby adopts and approves the findings and recommendation of the magistrate judge as the findings and conclusions of the court.

The motion to vacate is due to be GRANTED, the sentence is due to be VACATED, and Pruitt is due to be resentenced pursuant to the Fair Sentencing Act of 2010.

An appropriate order will be entered.

¹To the extent that the court is wrong, the issue is MOOT since Pruitt's other claims are due to be DENIED for the reasons outlined in the Government's response to Pruitt's motion. See Doc. 9.
